CHARLES S. MILES,
CHARLES H. STEVENS,
Effingham, Feb. 18, 1901. Auditors.

We, the undersigned, School board of Effingham, would say that we have made an extra effort to have the several schools in town a success. We have been very fortunate in securing well qualified teachers for each school, who have manifested full interest in the education of the pupils, and as a whole there has been as much advancement in all the different branches taught as in any year within our memory. We would say to parents and guardians, in order to have the schools successful we need their co-operation relative to keeping up a good interest with the pupils, and not enter complaints if their children are corrected for disobedience, for good discipline in school is quite as essential as wheels are for a wagon.

Respectfully submitted,

C. FRANK ROWE,
JOSIAH W. THURSTON, } School Board.
